GIST Techno Management Business Academy hosts friendly sports competitions... Alumni donates funds

- GIST (President Kiseon Kim) Techno Management Business Academy (GT MBA, Director Jong-In Song & GIST Vice President) and GIST Alumni Association (Chairperson Kyung-hyun Song & CEO of Thang Industrial Co., Ltd.) held the 6th GIST-GT MBA alumni sports competitions that was attended by 160 alumni.
  - The alumni made a donation 18 million won at the GT MBA event to celebrate of the spirit of the competition and to help start social contribution projects in Gwangju and South Jeolla Province.
- GIST Alumni Association Chairperson Kyung-hyun Song said, "The true value of this competition is to inspire pride as a GT MBA alumni and to create stronger harmony by meeting good people. I hope that the friendly sports competition will promote unity among alumni and bring much interest and affection to the development of the GT MBA Alumni Association."
  - GT MBA Director Jong-In Song said, "I would like to express my deep gratitude for their contribution to the social contribution work of GIST through this sports event. GIST will do our best to help and work with the alumni and local businesses."
- The donation will be used to support elementary, middle, and high school students at local children's center where GIST students perform volunteer work through the Learning Zone, one of GIST's social contribution projects.

- Meanwhile, GTMBA is currently recruiting new students for their 10th program in 2020, which runs for one year starting in March until November.
