Hanyoung P&S Co., Ltd., of which GTMBA 8th class alumnus Yun-seop Kim serves as CEO, is a metal spring manufacturer, including steel processing and mold manufacturing, established in 2012. It is located in Hanam Industrial Complex, Gwangsan-gu, Gwangju, and produces refrigerators, washing machines, air conditioners, etc. The company mainly manufactures home appliance parts such as doors, ice crushers, and springs.

In his inauguration speech, Yun-seop Kim, the 7th President of the Alumni Association said, "I will do my best to help the GTMBA Alumni Association take a new leap forward through new projects during my term. We will further solidify and develop our achievements so far and create an alumni association that respects and encourages one another."

Seung-jong Na, the 6th President of the Alumni Association, who led the Alumni Association for the past year, said in his resignation address, "We were able to successfully lead the GTMBA Alumni Association with the generous love and support of our alumni. We would like to express our deepest gratitude to the six executives and executives of the Alumni Association, GIST officials, and GTMBA alumni for their loving interest and support."
