Chairman Won-man Kim said, "In the hope that GIST will stand tall as a world-class science and engineering education and research institute, we have decided to donate development funds together with Wonwoo. We sincerely thank the GIST Techno Management Business Academy and its staff for providing high-quality educational programs, and as a GIST alumni, we will contribute to the development of the school and the revitalization of the local economy.

President Kichul Lim delivered a congratulatory speech that was read by Vice President for R&DB Sungho Jeong, saying, "Based on the pride and confidence of having completed the GTMBA course, I hope that you will take the lead in improving your management skills and enhancing the competitiveness of local industries by utilizing the insight and personal network you have gained through the CEO course. Please continue to strive for continued communication and cooperation between GIST and your industry."

GTMBA opened the CTO course in 2010 to serve as a business hub through a systematic CEO education program, and currently, approximately 580 alumni are active as leaders in various fields of society.

GTMBA opens every March and is held every Tuesday at 7 PM at GIST Oryong Hall for 30 weeks until November, and is currently recruiting new students for the 15th class in 2025.
