The Gwangju Institute of Science and Technology (GIST, President Kichul Lim) announced on Thursday, the 22nd that it received a total of 10 million won in development funds, 5 million won each from the GIST Technology Management Academy (GT MBA) Alumni Golf Club and GIST Development Foundation Chairman Hae-myeong Kim.

The donation ceremony was held during the GT MBA Golf Club Sports Competition on the 19th, and the event was attended by approximately 90 people, including GIST Vice President for R&DB Sungho Jeong, GIST Academy Director Jae Gwan Kim, GIST Development Foundation Chairman Hae-myeong Kim, GT MBA Alumni Golf Club President Jae-moon Kim, GT MBA Alumni Association President Jeong-sun Park, and 7th Alumni Association President Yun-seop Kim.

The GTMBA Alumni Golf Club stated, “We donated the development fund with the hope that GIST will continue to grow as a world-class research-oriented university,” and President Hae-myeong Kim, who was moved by this, immediately pledged to donate 5 million won on the spot to express his gratitude.

GTMBA Alumni Golf Club President Kim Jae-moon said, “Through GTMBA, we were able to stimulate each other’s learning, share new perspectives and challenges, and grow together,” and added, “I hope that this donation, which we decided to make to express our gratitude in a meaningful way, will be a small start that will open the door to wider opportunities for GIST members.”

He added, “I will continue to support the continued growth and development of GIST and GTMBA, and I will fulfill my responsibilities and roles as an alumni.”

Chairman Hae-myeong Kim said, “I deeply sympathize with the warm intentions of the GTMBA Alumni Golf Club,” and “I decided to join because I believe that good influence has greater meaning when we are together.” He added, “I would like to contribute my heart to the development of GIST at any time.”

GIST President Kichul Lim said, “The warm sharing shown by the GTMBA Alumni Golf Club went beyond simple donations and was a great encouragement and resonance for all GIST members.” He added, “In order to repay your support, GIST will further strengthen its global competitiveness based on creativity and innovation.”
