

For GIST International Students

Program of Visiting Alma Maters

The Team of Academic and Students Affairs (TASA) at GIST is planning to send GIST international students to their home countries and alma maters through the Program of Visiting Alma Maters from 2008.

The primary objective of the Program of Visiting Alma Maters is to promote GIST and to advertise our excellent international students.

See the details below for further details. Your participation is encouraged.

A. Details:

- Participants
Ph.D. Students / ONLY one time during study at GIST
- Visiting period
Maximum 15 days
- Approval of Academic Advisor
As part of their application, applicants have to have show prior approval from their advisor.
- Information (PR) activities
 - Participants will have to distribute leaflets, brochures, and post GIST information posters. (TASA and CISS will provide the leaflets, brochures, and posters.)
 - Participants will have to promote GIST to international students and to consult with international students about benefits of studying at GIST.

B. Requirements:

- Applicants should be current Ph.D. students of GIST and have Bachelors or Masters degrees from their home countries.
- Each applicant must individually complete the form (Plan for Visiting Alma Mater) and send it to TASA.
